

The Hippie Movement

What is Our Movement?

- Rise of the Hippies
- Self Expression
- Drug Use

How Long Did This Movement Last?

- Gained traction because of Vietnam
- Peaked in late 60's with Woodstock Music and Art Festival
- War ended 1975, media focused less on hippies

How did it Start?

Contributing Factors:

- Popularization of LSD (Lysergic Acid Diethylamide)
 - Entry into Vietnam War
 - The Beatnik Generation
 - Eastern Spirituality
-
-

Where Did Hippies Come From?

- Their withdrawal from society
 - Expression
 - Enlightenment
 - Spirituality
- The Beatniks
 - Predecessor
 - Similar Views

Main Influences

- Harvard Professor, Timothy Leary
 - LSD (Lysergic Acid Diethylamide)
 - Marijuana
- Buddhism
 - Non-Violence
 - Spiritual “Enlightenment”
 - Beliefs

The Lifestyle

- Lived in seclusion purposely
- Embraced rock music and icons
- Bonded with each other using sex, drugs

Product One - Diorama

- A look into the life of a hippie, and the inspiration
 - Vietnam War
 - Common Hippie scene
- Artifacts

- Why I chose this option

Product Two - Painting

- Place in which hippies lived
 - Why they lived how they did

- Why painting was chosen

Fredo's Essay

- Fredo's essay is about how drugs and sex were the biggest factors in the hippie movements growth.
-
-

Andrew's Essay

- Thesis
 - The Hippie Movement wouldn't have existed without Eastern religion
- Buddhism
- Hinduism

Questions?

